OrePac Building Products Offers Therma-Tru in Salt Lake City

Wilsonville, Oregon - July 30, 2020 - OrePac Building Products, wholesale distributor of specialty interior and exterior building materials, is now offering Therma-Tru doors in the Salt Lake City market.

OrePac is pleased to announce the addition of Therma-Tru doors in the Salt Lake City market. For 20+ years, these award-winning doors have been designated as the “Brand Used Most” by building professionals, more than any other door brand¹. Paul Mihm, Senior Vice President of Sales for Therma-Tru, says, “We are grateful for the partnership with OrePac and are excited for what this expansion can achieve.”

With the added presence to Salt Lake City, OrePac will now be fabricating and prefinishing these high-quality doors at all ten of their distribution centers across the western United States. “We are excited about this new opportunity and very pleased that Therma-Tru continues to trust OrePac to deliver quality, service, and value to the market,” says Brad Hart, President and CEO of OrePac.

Contact your OrePac sales representative to learn more on how you can introduce Therma-Tru doors into your next projects.
